

*Here is a gift from us to you,
We hope you enjoy it yes we do!*

*For all the times you cooked and cared,
Smiled and hugged, when we were sad or scared
It's time for us to give back and share.
There's a cooler and some Tupperware,
For two parents that have been beyond compare,
You'll just need your favorite dinnerware.*

*Once a month we'll be delivering dinner,
We're all set to put our stoves on simmer.
So sit back and relax for something yummy will come,
Put a smile on your face and act overcome.*
